

New Beginnings Therapeutic Riding Inc.

The Mane Event
October 16, 2010

The Mane Event is an exciting equine event to be held at the WKU Ag Expo Center in Bowling Green, KY

Saturday, October 16 beginning at 10:00 AM

$10.00 per person; Children under 6 free

The first mane event was held in 2009 and attracted over 400 people!

This is a unique event in South Central Kentucky, and offers not just horse owners but also the general public an opportunity to learn and be entertained by horse-oriented programs and demonstrations.

Proceeds from this annual event will benefit the students of New Beginnings Therapeutic Riding.

Our mission is...dedicated to serving individuals with disabilities by enhancing their lives using the power of horses.

Our goal is to...strengthen the minds, bodies, and souls of individuals, encourage self-esteem, confidence and coordination, ability and freedom to be mobile without artificial aides, and see positive changes in riders - spiritually and physically.

NBTR is a non-profit, NARHA Premier Accredited Center with 5 NARHA certified instructors.

GO TO WWW.NBTR-BG.ORG FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES, VENDOR SPACE, VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AND TICKET SALES.

Featuring Josh Lyons, son of John Lyons, one of the most naturally talented horse trainers and clinicians in the world.

Plan to attend Josh Lyons' sessions...
10:00 AM, 5:30 PM and 7:00 PM
at the WKU AG Center
